1. Prior to 10 August 1950 the VP units in Weissenfels (M 52/J 99) totaled about 1,200 police. It was said that the original cadre personnel of the Weissenfels VP post and a VP unit with two 75-mm AT guns had moved to Burg (M 53/Y 81).
2. The VP units in Weissenfels were exclusively engaged in infantry training, with emphasis on training with model 42 machine guns, assault rifles and mortars. The combat training was in accordance with the German Army manuals. A VP platoon marching out of the post consisted of the platoon leader, 3 squad leaders, 3 Kommissar candidates and 30 enlisted police. *
